

Left — THE WORLD'S LARGEST "TABLE-CLOTH." Workmen spreading the huge tarpaulins that protected the championship center court at Wimbledon from rain during the recent tennis matches, in which America's Molla went down to defeat before France's brilliant Suzanne. Sudden thunder showers temporarily delayed the matches, which, because of this unique court protection, were able to be renewed the instant rain ceased falling.

Wide World

Right—CHAUVE SOURIS GUARD OF HONOR. Master Jania Dubinsky, aged four, whose parents are in the cast of Chauve Souris, who acts as guard of honor atop the Century Roof for youngsters who attend the matinees. Jania, who traveled many thousand miles escaping from the Russian Bolsheviks, has appeared on the stage as the son in "Madame Butterfly." He is pictured here challenging Balieff himself.

Wide World

CANNED PEACHES. A pair of lively Chicago bathing beauties who ignored the recent edict banning abbreviated costumes for the Windy City's beaches are apparently altogether reluctant about taking a ride in the "Black Maria" to the station house, and are giving the coppers and plain-clothes men a merry time of it.

International

Left—QUEEN OF THE CAROUSEL. Pretty Elizabeth W. Post, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron K. Post, of Bayport, L. I., who was in charge of the merry-go-round at the Chinese fete put on by society folk along the Merrick Road at Bayside last week for the benefit of the South Side Hospital.

Wide World

Right—A FREEPORT ELK. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Theodore Roosevelt acknowledges the rousing ovation given him as he parades with thousands of his B. P. O. E. brothers along Atlantic City's famous Boardwalk—a feature of last week's Elk convention at the shore.

P. & A.

GOLD MINING TEN MILES FROM THE WHITE HOUSE. Gold is actually being mined in the deep ravine of Bull Neck Run back of the famous Jackson place in the heart of Old Virginia—just ten miles from the heart of Washington. The property is privately owned, and rumor has it that Senator King, of Utah, and former Senator Lewis, of Utah, are back of the project, which is causing a genuine mid-summer stir in the capital.

Underwood

Left—SAMPLING HIS OWN MEDICINE. Postmaster General Work snapped at the Washington city postoffice as he purchases the first of the new issue of Special Delivery stamps which feature a motorcycle instead of the old familiar bicycle.

Paul Thompson, from H. & B.

Right — BASKETBALL, NEWPORT SOCIETY'S LATEST. Four attractive society misses trying out the new basketball grounds at exclusive Bailey's Beach, Newport. The pair of debs on their toes at the right are Miss Antionette W. Frissell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Frissell, of New York and Newport, and Miss Marion F. Wickes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth Wickes, of New York and Tuxedo.

International

Left—ST. LOUIS SWAT-TERS. First Baseman Sisler and Left Fielder Williams, of the St. Louis Americans, two of the main reasons why the Browns are leading the Yankees in the pennant race. Sisler tops his league batters by many points, while Williams is comfortably ahead of Babe Ruth in home-run honors.

Wide World

